Trainer Information

Dr Ruth Reakes is a Specialty doctor who has been working in the Sexual Health Clinic in Reading for 18 years, having previously worked in just the contraception service when her 5 children were small. She was invited to join the sexual health clinic in order to bring contraceptive skills in the days when these services were not integrated. She became a qualified implant and coil fitter in 2011 and a Faculty Registered Trainer in 2013. She was the Regional Training Advisor for the Oxford Region for 6 years until the post was closed 3 years ago. She has been the Contraceptive Lead in the clinic since 2017.
